UPON THE EX PARTE APPLICATION of the Applicant, The City of Calgary (“The City”); AND UPON HAVING READ the Affidavits of Brad Teets, Jason Bobrowich, Barb Doyscher, and Brad Labrenz; AND UPON hearing from legal counsel for the Applicant; IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AS FOLLOWS:

Prohibitions

1. The City is granted an interlocutory injunction pursuant to section 554 of the Municipal Government Act, RSA 2000, c M-26 prohibiting the Respondents from engaging in:

- (a) the blocking of traffic on roads and on sidewalks, walking in the middle of the roadways, and preventing vehicles and pedestrians from lawfully passing by or accessing amenities in the area without authorization or a permit;
- (b) conduct or activity in a park which unreasonably disturbs the use or enjoyment of the park for other users of the park, or hosting an event or using an amplification system in a park without a permit;
- (c) commercial activity in a park, including but not limited to the operation of vendor stands within Central Memorial Park or other areas without a permit;
- (d) the unnecessary sounding of horns or other audible warning devices of motor vehicles or of other noise making devices, including but not limited to air horns and megaphones, within the boundaries of the City contrary to the Community Standards Bylaw 5M2004 (the "Community Standards Bylaw"). In the context of motor vehicle horns or other audible warning devices, the sounding shall be deemed unnecessary if done in a manner contrary to section 83 of the Use of Highway and Rules of the Roadway Regulation, AR 304/2002. For clarity, section 83 states:

(a) except for the purposes of giving notice to other persons that are on or approaching a highway or within the vicinity of the vehicle, or

(b) so that it makes more noise than is reasonably necessary to give notice to other persons that are on or approaching a highway or within the vicinity of the vehicle.

- 2. Alternatively, The City is granted a quia timet interlocutory injunction imposing the same prohibitions as set out at paragraph 1 of this Order.
